

Abstract

The traditional book even have the same subject, but the writers or publishers' different caused the details has a little different too. This factor influence the customers is hard to choose it or buy it too much on one time, but some parts of book we doesn't use it. It's too waste.

Now, the cellphone is popular and the technology has promoted very fast. The cellphone has different capabilities than before, just like surfing on the net and reading the book on the cellphone.

This time, we are using the Visual Basic 6.0 software to make the E-Book, the substance is senior high school's chinese literary language. This E-Book even has the interface to play the movie, it may impressed on the user.

So, we want to provide a great learning balcony, it can promotes our learning. Besides, we can decrease to fell the trees and give us a better life environment.